

Incorporating the voices of the eastern Coachella Valley

Search

Featured Articles Videos Opinion Blogs Photography Events

Select Language

Powered by Google Translate

Featured, Videos — August 7, 2013 3:01 pm

Housing Coalition Serves up Summer Tennis Camp for Youth

Posted by Coachella Unincorporated

[Translate]

For the past 13 years, the Coachella Valley Housing Coalition has provided the young residents of its low-income housing communities the opportunity to attend tennis camp at the prestigious Indian Wells Tennis Gardens.

In this video, Coachella Unincorporated shares a glimpse of what these young tennis enthusiasts have done twice a week for the past four weeks. Even the triple digit heat does not dampen their spirits on the court.

The Coachella Valley Housing Coalition is helps low low-income families improve their living conditions through advocacy, research, construction, and operation of housing and community development projects. CVHC has constructed nearly 4,000 homes and apartments for low-income households in Riverside County and Imperial County.

Digital Production by Aurora Saldivar and Ivan Delgado

Coachella Uninc. Spring 2013 Publication

Open publication - Free publishing

Richmond Pulse

New School Year Brings New Academic Standards August 16, 2013 admin

South Kern Sol

Caravana pro-inmigración sacude a Bakersfield August 20, 2013 South Kern Sol

The Know Fresno

More Than Just a Swimming Center July 29, 2013 The kNOW

Voicewaves

What I Learned in Sacramento About Boys & Men of Color